Cumulative Index, 1994

AUTHOR INDEX

Ackerman, Michael H.
Humor won, humor too: A model to incorporate humor into the healthcare setting (revised) 29(2), 15–21
Akers, Janet A.
Should children be used as research subjects? 29(3), 28–33
Arcangelo, Virginia
Should age be a criterion for rationing health care? 29(1), 25–29
The myth of independent practice (Editorial) 29(4), 3–4
Bell, Shirley K. (See Akers, Janet A.)
Caffrey, Paul A. (See Caffrey, Rosalie A.)
Caffrey, Rosalie A.
Nursing: Caring or codependent? 29(1), 12–17
Carlson-Catalano, Judy
Cultivation personal power 29(2), 22–28
Coffey, Nancy (See Ackerman, Michael H.)
Cox, Marsha
Poetry in leadership: An enhancer of relationships 29(1), 30–34
Dawson, Susan M.
Using locus of control to empower student nurses to be professional 29(4), 10–15
Deane, Donna M. (See Sullivan, Jean Langley)
Forrest, Sandra
Commentary 29(2), 35–36
Graham, Kathy M. (See Ackerman, Michael H.)
Gropper, Elise I.
Women supporting women—Are nurses really their own worst enemies? 29(3), 34–36
Heaman, Doris J.
Let's pretend a hospital teaches children about health care 29(4), 5–9
Henry, Mary Beth (See Ackerman, Michael H.)
Hootman, Janis
Nursing our most valuable resource: School age children 29(3), 5–17
Horsburg, Martha Elizabeth (See Lidster, Cynthia A.)
Iafolla, Mary Ann C.
The dilemma of women leaders 29(2), 29–34
Lassan, Rebecca
Nursing faculty practice: A valid sabbatical request? 29(2), 10–14
Lidster, Cynthia A.
Masturbation—Beyond myth and taboo 29(3), 18–26
Lindseth, Glenda
Practicing invasive procedures on students and patients: An ethical dilemma in nursing education 29(1), 18–24
Madison, Jeanne
The value of mentoring in nursing leadership: A descriptive study 29(4), 16–23
Neuhs, Helen P.
TQM/CQI: Providing a steady supply of nurses for the future 29(4), 24–29
Raines, Deborah A.
Moral agency in nursing 29(1), 5–11
Rambo, Alma
Computer technology: Implications for nurse educators 29(4), 30–36
Sullivan, Jean Langley
Caring: Reappropriating our tradition 29(2), 5–9

SUBJECT INDEX

Caring
Caring: Reappropriating our tradition (Sullivan) 29(2), 5–9
Children
Let's pretend: A hospital teaches children about health care (Heaman) 29(4), 5–9
Codependency
Nursing: Caring or codependent? (Caffrey & Caffrey) 29(1), 12–17
Computer
Computer technology: Implications for nurse educators (Rambo) 29(4), 30–36
Concept Analysis
Moral agency in nursing (Raines) 29(1), 5–11
Editorials
Hope, courage, fun (Carpenito) 29(1), 3–4
The blueing of white collars (Carpenito) 29(2), 3–4
The patient-focused care game (Carpenito) 29(3), 3–4
The myth of independent practice (Arcangelo) 29(4), 3–4
Ethics
Practicing invasive procedures on students and patients: An ethical dilemma in nursing education (Lindseth) 29(1), 18-24
Should age be a criterion for rationing health care? (Arcangelo) 29(1), 25–29
Should children be used as research subjects? (Akers) 29(3), 28–33
Faculty
Nursing faculty practice: A valid sabbatical request? (Lassan) 29(2), 10–14
Historical Perspectives
The dilemma of women leaders (Iafolla) 29(2), 29–34
Commentary (Forrest) 29(2), 35–36
Humor
Humor won, humor too: A model to incorporate humor into the healthcare setting (revised) (Ackerman, Henry, Graham, & Coffrey) 29(2), 15–21
Masturbation
Masturbation—Beyond myth and taboo (Lidster) 29(3), 18–26
Mentoring
The value of mentoring in nursing leadership: A descriptive study (Madison) 29(4), 16–23
Poetry
Poetry in leadership: An enhancer of relationships (Cox) 29(1), 30–34
Power
Cultivation personal power (Carlson-Catalano) 29(2), 22–28
Empowering students to be professional (Dawson) 29(4), 10–15
Quality
TQM/CQI: Providing a steady supply of nurses for the future (Neuhs) 29(4), 24–29
School Nursing
Nursing our most valuable resource: School age children (Hootman) 29(3), 5–17
Women
Women supporting women—Are nurses really their own worst enemies? (Gropper) 29(3), 34–36